

Advances in Medicine for Older Adults - 2019

This eight-session, weekly course is back for a sixth engagement this fall.

Each session will focus on prevention, treatment options, and recent advances in technology related to conditions affecting older adults. The speakers, who are specialists in their fields, practice at facilities throughout the area including Princeton Medical Center, The Woodrow Wilson School, Hunterdon Medical Center and the Institute for Advanced Study.

Recommended readings for each session will be available online the week prior to the scheduled session.

Sept 23      Addressing & Optimizing Age-related Sensory Impairment

Dr. John Heath, Hunterdon Center for Healthy Aging

Oct 7      Advances in Audiology

Dr. Jane Brady, Horizon Audiology

Oct 14      Cancer Update

Dr. Brian Liu, Pharmaceutical industry

Oct 21      Advances in the Treatment of Diabetes

Dr. Ned Weiss, Princeton Endocrinology Associates

Oct 28      Current Genetic Research in Medicine

Dr. Arnold Levine, Professor Emeritus Institute for Advanced Study

Nov 4      Advances in Periodontal Health

Dr. Robert Hersh, The Center for Periodontal Health

Nov 25      Antibiotic Stewardship and the Microbiome

Dr. Laura Kahn, Program on Science and Global Security Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs

Dec 2      Current Treatments of Cataracts & Macular Degeneration

Dr. Anita Miedziak, Princeton Eye Group

Leaders: David Atkin, MD, FAAP, is a retired physician and former Chief of Staff and Trustee at Princeton Medical Center and John Cotton, MD, FAAP, is a retired physician and also a former Chief of Staff at Princeton Medical Center.

Mondays: 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., 8 weeks: September 23 through December 2 (no class on 9/30, 11/11, and 11/18)

Location: PSRC, Maximum 30 seats