

ART FROM ALL ANGLES

Docents, Princeton University Art Museum

What do you see when you look at a work of art? As a rule, each of us sees something different. We all approach art from our own unique vantage point—from our own angle. In this course docents from the Princeton University Art Museum will lead students through wide-ranging discussions of their reactions to different works of art. Each week will focus on a different topic using the Museum's extensive collection as a backdrop.

The topics include:

Faces - Jeanne Johnson

Fashion - Adria Sherman

Food - Ellen Rogers

Creatures Great and Small - Linda Hayes

Line, Shape, and Color - Judy Langille

Use of Positive and Negative Space in Art - Brian Langille

Student participation in the course is enthusiastically encouraged. We look forward to lively give-and-take discussions.

LEADER: Linda Hayes, a retired magazine editor, has been a docent at the Princeton University Art Museum since 2016.
